

Review Men's 62kg

- Francisco Antonio Mosquera Valencia (COL) gave Colombia its second and third world title in a men's event, after Oscar Figueroa (COL) won the Clean & Jerk in this weight class in 2013.
- Since 1998, Colombia has won 16 medals in the men's 62kg event. It won two medals in all other men's events.
- Trinh Van Vinh (VIE) won the Snatch and gave Vietnam its first medal in a men's weight category other than the men's 56kg, in which Vietnam again won medals earlier in the day.
- Antonio Vazquez Mendez (MEX) and Jose Lino Montes Gongora (MEX) became the second and third man from Mexico to win a world championships medal, after Bredni Roque (MEX) grabbed bronze in the Clean & Jerk in the 69kg event in Houston two years ago.
