

Review Men's 61kg

- Eko Yuli Irawan (INA) claimed the world title in the Snatch, Clean & Jerk and Total in the men's 61kg at the world championships in Ashgabat.
- Eko Yuli Irawan (INA) has now won 13 medals at the world championships (2007-2014), including gold in men's 62kg Clean & Jerk in 2009.
- It marked the first time in history that any athlete representing Indonesia won three world titles in a single world championships.
- Irawan won a world title nine years after his first gold, becoming the fourth athlete to win successive world titles nine years apart, after John Terpak (USA, 1937-1947), Sergo Chakhoyan (AUS, 1994-2003) and Sun Caiyan (CHN, 1993-2003).
- Francisco Antonio Mosquera Valencia (COL) took bronze in the Clean & Jerk for his sixth career medal at world championships. He is Colombia's second-most successful male weightlifter. Only Oscar Figuero (COL, 8) won more medals.
