

Review Men's 67kg

- Chen Lijun (CHN) won the Clean & Jerk and the Total to lift his number of world titles to six after winning four world titles in the men's 62kg event in 2013 and 2015.
- Chen joined Shi Ziyong and Wu Meijin in sixth place among Chinese men with most world titles in weightlifting.
- Chen won his third Total world title, equalling the Chinese record for most among men, held by Liao Hui, Lu Xiaojun and Zhang Guozheng.
- Huang Minhao (CHN) won the Snatch world title in this event. He previously claimed the 62kg Snatch world title at the 2017 Asian Championships and at the junior world championships in 2012.
- Julio Ruben Mayora Pernia (VEN) claimed bronze in the Snatch and Total. He is the third man from Venezuela to claim a world championships medal, after Israel Rubio in 2006 and Julio César Luna in 1997.
- Mayora Pernia became the second man from Venezuela to claim multiple medals at the world championships after César Luna in the 91kg in 1997. César Luna won the world title in Clean & Jerk and bronze in the Total.
- Oscar Albeiro Figueroa Mosquera (COL) took bronze in the Clean & Jerk. It was his ninth medal at the world championships, at least three more than any other Colombian male weightlifter.
