

Review Women's 49kg - 2018 Weightlifting World Championships - Ashgabat, TKM

- Chayuttra Pramongkhol (THA) won the world title (Total).
- For Pramongkhol, it was her first medal at a senior world championships, having already pocketed silverware at Junior World Championships.
- With Pramongkhol claiming two of three world titles and Sopita Tanasan winning the Snatch, Thai women have now claimed all six women's events at the world championships in Ashgabat.
- Their six world titles in women's events is already the best achievement for Thai female lifters at a world championships, beating their five world titles from 2017.